

Serving Individuals And Small Business Owners

Falling behind on your bills or feeling uncertain about your financial stability can be frustrating and stressful. It's common in today's economically depressed times that both individuals and small business owners face insolvency. If you find yourself considering bankruptcy as a way to relieve your debt, you'll need legal advice and counsel from experienced bankruptcy attorneys.

At The Law Office of Rollie R. Hanson, S.C., our attorneys can help you negotiate the applicable laws and provisions that will provide you with relief while protecting your assets. Since 1986, our bankruptcy attorneys have assisted financially distressed clients in consumer and bankruptcy law cases to get the positive results they need.

Providing An Effective, Responsible Debt Relief Approach

When you retain the services of the lawyer at The Law Office of Rollie R. Hanson, S.C., we will review your income, your financial obligations and your long-term financial outlook in order to create an effective and responsible strategy to financial relief that is tailored to your situation. We will answer your questions and explain all aspects of bankruptcy law and the options to consider. Your options could include: Chapter 7 bankruptcy, Chapter 11 bankruptcy and Chapter 13 bankruptcy.

There is no substitute for the services we offer to every client, which include:

- One-on-one contact with an attorney from the moment you walk through the door
- Open communication and ongoing client participation in formulating and implementing our legal strategy for your case
- Information and education on the legalities of your case
- Aggressive representation in the courtroom
- Affordable fees
- Compassion and sensitivity in the personal nature of your case

Covering All Aspects Of Bankruptcy Law

We will review your income, financial obligations and long-term financial outlook to find the most effective approach to financial relief for your unique situation. Our lawyers will also review with you all aspects of bankruptcy law appropriate to your case, including:

- Explain what bankruptcy is
- Explain the types of bankruptcy available
- Go over bankruptcy alternatives

We will also take the time to explain what to expect after bankruptcy. Because your bankruptcy case may impact other areas of your life, our attorneys are also available to provide legal guidance to you in other areas that can be related, including divorce, mortgage foreclosure, auto repossession, wage garnishments, judgments or illegal collection practices. Our attorney can even continue to assist you in financial planning post-bankruptcy.
